

About KAHKEWISTAHAW FIRST NATION

Kahkewistahaw First Nation is located 15km North of Broadview, Saskatchewan along the #201 Highway and next to the Qu'Appelle Valley. Kahkewistahaw means “Eagle flying in a circle”. The reserve originated from the signing of Treaty 4 in September 15, 1874 by Chief Kahkewistahaw. Present at the signing were Chief Kahkewistahaw, 2 headmen, and approximately 63 members. This band was one of a handful which was not greatly influenced by the fur trade. The languages spoken on the reserve are Cree and Saulteaux.

Kahkewistahaw Vision Statement: The strength of our children will carry us to a healthy and prosperous future.

HIGHLIGHTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

- Chief Kahkewistahaw signed Treaty 4 on September 15, 1874.
- Through recent land acquisitions, via the Treaty Land Entitlement process, Kahkewistahaw First Nation is acquiring land to fulfill the shortfall in land received when originally surveyed.
- Future development of Urban Holding lands in Saskatoon's Hampton Village Business Park will provide immense economic opportunities for a mixture of commercial, business park, and light industrial developments.
